

Our new web catalogue is online!

Register yourself and find faster our products

With our new web catalogue from now on you still can find the spare parts of PartsTec faster.

Are you looking for certain spare parts? Simply subscribe by using the application form, register yourself and afterwards you will receive by email your personal login credentials.

At the web catalogue, you have then different opportunities to find and to identify the accurate spare part of PartsTec.

Just enter any reference number or PartsTec catalogue number and you will get further specific product information about the wanted product or about the use in different vehicles.

Of course, this is also working backwards and you can reach the wanted spare part with help of a previous defined vehicle.

You did not find the wanted spare part of PartsTec?

No problem, then please inform us because like so many things in this world the data were created by humans and we are always anxious to expand and to improve our catalogue data. Naturally, it is the same procedure if you discover catalogue mistakes!

Therefore, at the beginning we will update once a month's end our web catalogue.

Now we wish you a lot of success in searching spare parts of PartsTec – The best choice!